

Noah's Ark at the Skirball

Storms, Arks, Rainbows,
Skirball Cultural Center - Los Angeles, CA

Five years in the making and occupying an 8,000-square-foot gallery space, Noah's Ark at the Skirball – opened in 2007- creates a wondrous world through ingenious architecture, exhibition design , and special effects. This cube describes the projects origins, the individual animal's material composition and the name and attributes of the animals shown. Example: Penguin, Antarctica. We're emperor penguins. Some of us mate for life. We work together to care for our young. Carved wood. aniline dyes, black rubber, copper brads.
